

Leominster Credit Union Announces 2010-2011 Board of Directors

Leominster Credit Union recently announced the following Officers will serve on its 2010-2011 Board of Directors.

Giulio G. Greco was re-elected Chairman of the Board. Mr. Greco is a retired Leominster businessman and has been a member of LCU's Board for more than three decades.

Amedeo E. Bilotta was re-elected Vice Chairman. Mr. Bilotta is a former Chairman of LCU's Board, having served in the capacity for five years. He has been a Board member since 1995.

Richard A. Sheppard was re-elected Treasurer. Mr. Sheppard taught for many years in the Wachusett Regional School System. He currently serves as Selectman in Sterling. He has been a Board member since 2006.

Rosemary Bracani was re-elected to the office of Assistant Treasurer. A retired businesswoman and life-long resident of Leominster, she has served as a Board Director since 1999.

Anthony A. Gasbarro was re-elected to the office of Clerk. Mr. Gasbarro is Principal of Glenwood Elementary School in Rutland, which is part of the Wachusett Regional School District. He is a Leominster resident and has been on the Board since 2003.

Joining the officers on the 2010-2011 Board of Directors are Director Andrew D. Cousins of Sterling, Director Nancy L. Graves of Leominster, Director Joyce A. LaFluer of Leominster, Director Joseph V. Quintal of Clinton, Director John W. Reedy of Clinton and Director Michael J. Sauvageau of Lunenburg.

The Board of Directors is responsible for setting LCU policies that are in the best interest of its members. Board Directors receive no compensation for their efforts.

Leominster Credit Union recently announced the following Officers have been elected to serve on their 2010-2011 Board of Directors. Giulio G. Greco Chairman of the Board, Amedeo E. Bilotta Vice Chairman, Richard A. Sheppard Treasurer, Rosemary Bracani Assistant Treasurer and Anthony A. Gasbarro Clerk.

