

Leominster Credit Union Promotes Barbara A. Mahoney to Senior VP, Human Resources

Leominster Credit Union recently promoted Barbara A. Mahoney to the position of Senior Vice President, Human Resources.

“Barbara joined Leominster Credit Union in 2003 and has been a valuable resource to her peers and managers within the credit union, not only as a knowledgeable executive within her field, but also as a professional who models the behaviors and character necessary to being successful,” commented LCU President & CEO Gordon R. Edmonds. “Her new job title better reflects how highly valued she is at LCU.”

Prior to joining LCU, Mahoney was employed by Bank of Boston for ten years, followed by fifteen years as Director of Human Resources at Allmerica Financial. She holds a Bachelor in Social Rehabilitation from Assumption College and attended Assumption and Suffolk University MBA programs. She serves on the Advisory Board for LUK Inc. Mentoring Program and is Secretary of the Parent Board at St. Leo School in Leominster.

Barbara resides in Leominster with her three children.

