

Leominster Credit Union Donates $50,000 to Mount Wachusett Community College Foundation

Leominster Credit Union President & CEO Gordon R. Edmonds recently presented a check in the amount of $50,000 to the Mount Wachusett Community College Foundation, Inc. to be used for scholarships and student services.

“Leominster Credit Union’s community commitment extends to many towns in North Central Massachusetts, and takes many forms. We’re involved in a number of educational initiatives at local elementary, middle and high schools, all directed at increasing financial literacy,” said Mr. Edmond’s of LCU’s civic focus. “This donation to MWCC underscores our commitment to their excellent work supporting the growth, improvement and accessibility of excellence in higher education.”

“Leominster Credit Union, its members and its employees have had a wonderful relationship with Mount Wachusett Community College for decades,” said MWCC President Daniel M. Asquino in accepting the contribution. “We greatly appreciate this generous donation to help support our current and future students.”

With campuses in Gardner, Leominster and Devens, Mount Wachusett Community College is an accredited, public, two-year institution serving 29 cities and towns in North Central Massachusetts. The college offers over 40 associate degrees and certificate programs, as well as adult basic education/GED courses, among other options.

Support services and resources offered to MWCC students include a Fitness & Wellness Center, the Academic Support Center, the Center for Democracy & Humanity, and the 555-seat Theatre at the Mount.

Leominster Credit Union President & CEO Gordon R. Edmonds, left, presents a check for $50,000 to Mount Wachusett Community College President Daniel M. Asquino.