Leominster Credit Union Announces Appointment of Two Directors

The LCU Board of Directors, at its December, 2011 meeting, voted to appoint Bruce J. Bollivar and Henry C. Kulik, Jr., CPA as new Directors of the Board.

“We are delighted to have the expertise that both Bruce and Henry bring to the Board,” said Gordon R. Edmonds, LCU’s President and CEO. “As local businessmen, they can provide insight into the financial needs of businesses in our communities, as well as the banking needs of individuals. Both Bruce and Henry are well-known in the area and have participated on a number of local committees and organizations.”

Bruce J. Bollivar of Holden, worked for McDonald’s Corporation for 34 years, most recently as owner and operator of four McDonald’s Restaurants in the Worcester area. Since his retirement from McDonald’s, he has worked as a wheelchair van driver with Kiessling Transit. Bollivar holds a BS in Industrial Management from Boston University and an MBA from Northeastern University. Bollivar formerly served on LCU’s Advisory Committee.

Henry C. Kulik, Jr., a resident of Westminster, is owner and operator of Henry C. Kulik, Jr., CPA, LLC in Leominster. He was previously a CPA at John Bresnahan CPA, P.C. in Harvard. Kulik graduated Magna Cum Laude from Fitchburg State College with a BS in Accounting. He is a member of the American Society of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), a Fellow of the Massachusetts Society of Certified Public Accountants, Inc. (MSCPA), a member of the Montachusett Estate and Retirement Planning Council and member of the North Central Massachusetts Chamber of Commerce.
