

Greg Bourekas Joins Leominster Credit Union as Assistant Vice President, Indirect Lending

Greg Bourekas has joined Leominster Credit Union as assistant vice president of indirect lending. Mr. Bourekas brings 25 years of experience in the automotive lending industry to his new position. He previously worked at St. Mary's Credit Union and IC Federal Credit Union as an Indirect Lending Manager. Mr. Bourekas will have direct responsibility for all aspects of the credit union's indirect lending program including strategy, sales management and productivity.

"We are pleased to welcome Greg to Leominster Credit Union as part of our lending team," said John O'Brien, senior vice president of Lending at LCU. "Greg's knowledge of the retail auto industry and indirect lending will be a great asset and resource for our members."

Mr. Bourekas holds a bachelors' degree in Accounting from UMASS Lowell and currently resides in Ashburnham with his wife and two sons.

