Leominster Credit Union Supports Children's Book Month

Collection Boxes are located at the Main Office and Branches

LCU will be participating once again in the annual Children's Book Month sponsored by the Massachusetts Credit Union League. During the month of April, donated books can be brought to the main office of LCU at 20 Adams Street or to any of its seven branch offices.

Last year, LCU members and employees proudly donated 543 books. A total of 47 Credit Unions participated in the "Make a Difference" event, donating 18,704 children's books to many non-profit agencies in cities and communities throughout the state. Since 2001 more than 209,030 books have been donated.

Organizing this year's collection efforts is Kathy Hurley, Human Resources Administrator, and Linda McQuade, Receptionist.

"Leominster Credit Union is proud to participate and Make a Difference by contributing to this annual event," comments Kathy Hurley, Human Resources Administrator. "It's nice to be able to provide children with the tools to succeed."

For more information contact Kathy Hurley or Linda McQuade at 978-537-8021.

Since its inception, Children's Book Month has been sponsored by the Massachusetts Credit Union League, the oldest continually operating trade group in the United States. The League supports its credit union members across the state in many ways including philanthropic programs like Children's Book Month.
