

Leominster Credit Union donates American Flag to the Leominster Senior Citizens Center

LEOMINSTER, MA – Gordon Edmonds, President & CEO, John Diggins and Maila Berry of Leominster Credit Union presented The Leominster Senior Citizen’s Center with a. American flag. Laurane Brooks, Executive Director accepted the flag on behalf of the Senior Citizens Center.

“It was an honor to give back to the Senior Citizen’s Center, an organization that has given so much to the community,” commented Gordon Edmonds, LCU President & CEO. “The Senior Center generously allowed LCU to borrow their original flag for various occasions over the years, which has always been greatly appreciated. With the renovations and enhancements the Senior Center has undergone, now seemed to be the perfect time for a new flag to be displayed.”

Founded in 1954, Leominster Credit Union (LCU) is a member-owned, not-for-profit financial cooperative with a full range of deposit, lending and other financial services. Headquartered in Leominster, Massachusetts, LCU is proud to have more than 50,000 members and more than $600 million in assets. LCU has seven branch locations in Leominster, Clinton, Holden, North Leominster, Sterling and Worcester with ATM services at all branch locations. 24-hour online banking services are available at www.leominstercu.com by telephone at 800-649-4646 and via mobile phone.

Pictured (L-R): Gordon Edmonds, LCU President & CEO; Laurane Brooks, Executive Director Leominster Senior Citizens Center, John Diggins, LCU; Maila Berry, LCU